

CASE DIGEST: Nat'l Weather Serv. Emps. Org. 71 FLRA 918 (2020)

During bargaining over their successor collective-bargaining agreement, the parties were unable to reach agreement on several articles, and the Agency requested the assistance of the Federal Service Impasses Panel (the Panel). The Union filed a motion requesting that the Authority stay the Panel proceeding. Subsequently, the Panel issued a decision and order. Because the Union did not demonstrate that a stay was appropriate, the Authority denied the Union's request.

Member DuBester dissented. He found that the majority failed to distinguish the circumstances in this case from those present in SSA, 71 FLRA 763 (2020), in which the majority found that a stay of a Panel decision and order was appropriate.
