The FLRA Office of the General Counsel Releases Collective Bargaining Video Training Series

Today, the Office of the General Counsel released a 5-part video series on Collective Bargaining in the federal government, describing elements of the collective bargaining process under the Federal Service Labor-Management Relations Statute (Statute). The video series is posted as a playlist on FLRA's YouTube channel, as well as in FLRA's video training library at FLRA.gov.

The series educates federal employees, unions, and managers on what is included in the scope of bargaining, when there is a duty to bargain, what represents good and bad faith bargaining, what defenses exist affecting a party's duty to bargain, and remedies when violations occur.
