

CELEBRATING 50 YEARS OF COLLECTIVE BARGAINING IN THE FEDERAL SERVICE

In 1962 President John F. Kennedy signed Executive Order 10988, granting collective bargaining rights to federal employees.

For half a century, federal labor-management relations has contributed in large measure to the high performing, dynamic and diverse public-sector workforce and effective public business we have today.

To learn more, visit www.flra.gov/50th_Anniversary_EO10988

UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF LABOR
Hilda L. Solis, Secretary of Labor