FLRA ANNOUNCES APPOINTMENT OF REGIONAL ATTORNEY IN THE CHICAGO REGIONAL OFFICE

Federal Labor Relations Authority (FLRA) General Counsel Julia Akins Clark announced today the appointment of Greg Weddle as Regional Attorney of the Chicago Regional Office. In his new position, Mr. Weddle will assist Chicago Regional Director Sandra LeBold in the management of personnel and operations relating to the investigation and resolution of unfair labor practice and representation cases in the Chicago Region, which covers Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kentucky, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, North Dakota, Ohio, Tennessee, and Wisconsin.

Mr. Weddle began his career with the FLRA in the Chicago Regional Office in 1996. He has served as a Senior Attorney since 2001 and as the Acting Regional Attorney in Chicago since April 2014. Before joining the FLRA, Mr. Weddle worked for the Social Security Administration in Michigan from 1986 to 1993. Mr. Weddle received a Bachelor of Science degree in Political Science and Public Service from Northern Illinois University and a Juris Doctor degree from Loyola University Chicago School of Law.

The FLRA Office of the General Counsel (OGC) is the independent investigative and prosecutorial component of the FLRA. Through its seven regional offices, the OGC investigates, settles, and prosecutes unfair labor practice charges, resolves representation disputes, including the conduct of secret ballot elections, and provides training to union and management representatives. The FLRA administers the labor-management relations program for 2.1 million non-Postal federal employees worldwide, approximately 1.2 million of whom are represented in 2,200 bargaining units. It is charged with providing leadership in establishing policies and guidance related to federal sector labor-management relations and with resolving disputes under, and ensuring compliance with, the Federal Service Labor-Management Relations Statute.
