

CASE DIGEST: IFPTE, Loc. 4, 73 FLRA 635 (2023)

This case concerned the negotiability of one proposal which would allow the Union to take photographs in Union-controlled spaces at the Agency's facility and disseminate those photographs without the Agency's prior approval. The Authority assumed, without deciding, that the proposal affected the Agency's right to determine internal-security practices. However, the Authority found the Agency conceded the proposal was negotiable as a procedure under 5 U.S.C. § 7106(b)(2). Accordingly, the Authority concluded that the proposal was within the duty to bargain.

This case digest is a summary of a decision issued by the Federal Labor Relations Authority, with a short description of the issues and facts of the case. Descriptions contained in this case digest are for informational purposes only, do not constitute legal precedent, and are not intended to be a substitute for the opinion of the Authority.