FEDERAL LABOR RELATIONS AUTHORITY MEMBER THOMAS M. BECK RESIGNS

Thomas M. Beck tendered his resignation from the Federal Labor Relations Authority (FLRA), effective August 3, 2012. Member Beck was originally appointed to the Authority -- the FLRA's three-Member adjudicatory body -- in 2008. FLRA Chairman Carol Waller Pope and Member Ernest DuBester continue to serve in their respective appointments to the Authority.

The FLRA administers the labor-management relations program for 2.1 million non-Postal Federal employees worldwide, approximately 1.2 million of whom are represented in 2,200 bargaining units. It is charged with providing leadership in establishing policies and guidance related to Federal sector labor-management relations and with resolving disputes under, and ensuring compliance with, the Federal Service Labor-Management Relations Statute.
